

Upon winter skies the aurora borealis dances and gleams. A celestial performance by Aurora, the Roman goddess of dawn. An apt reminder, too, of how deeply thankful we are for this, the dawn of a new year. And for you, our friends, colleagues and clients. The bold ones. Who are fighting, with temerity, to make your causes shine.