

You have this urge to wallpaper.

To assemble cribs.

Fold small blankets.

Shop for tiny coveralls

with the feet built in.

Pink or blue?

That's the mystery
the ultrasound will solve.

That is, if you want it to.

Perhaps along with giving in to your nesting instincts, you might also want to look into the newest birthing suites in the area. Or find out why there is no medical facility better prepared to help you through your pregnancy than UW Medical Center. From birthing classes to a neonatal intensive care unit to some of the best obstetrical specialists in the country. For more information, call 1-800-852-8546, or visit uwmedicine.org.
